

Daniel Clark
VP & Director of Business Development at NYCEDC

Session: Economic Development: Global Shaping Local Markets

Daniel Clark serves as VP & Director of Business Development at NYCEDC, where he has overseen business attraction, expansion, and retention for NYC since 2017.

Dan has a background in community development, including former roles as the Executive Director of the Staten Island Business Outreach Center and the Forest Avenue Business Improvement District. In addition, Dan serves as an innovation officer in the US Army Reserves.

