

Damon Conrad

Vice President, Managing Director - Canada
Royal LePage Commercial

Damon Conrad stands as a dynamic leader in the Commercial Real Estate realm, steering innovation and growth at the helm of Royal LePage Commercial - the largest and fastest-growing commercial real estate brand in the country. With a career spanning over two decades, his professional accomplishments shine in areas of strategic planning, transaction execution, and portfolio management, fueled by an unyielding drive for business expansion.

In addition to his notable career milestones, Damon captivates audiences as the charismatic host of "Conrad's Corner," a YouTube show and podcast that provides insightful commentary on the real estate and business landscape. His prowess in forging industry connections has solidified his reputation as a passionate networker.

Prior to his leadership at Royal LePage Commercial, Damon polished his expertise in key roles at Brookfield, SNC-Lavalin, and Cushman & Wakefield. His prestigious client roster boasts of titans like Bell Canada, Metrolinx, Goodlife, Second Cup Coffee, and Candu Energy.

Among his many accolades, Damon's negotiation skills were spotlighted when he secured the 2015 NAIOP Real Estate Excellence Award for the Greater Toronto Area Office Lease of the Year.
