

BIO

TONY L. D'ANZICA, JD, CIPS

BROKER/OWNER

DYNAMAX REALTY NYC, INC.

Tony L. D'Anzica is the broker-owner of Dynamax Realty NYC, Inc. a property management firm he founded in 2009. Tony began his law career in 1997 representing landlords and property management firms.

D'Anzica has represented buyers and sellers in conventional, short sale, and foreclosure transactions, specializing in managing coop and condo buildings in Manhattan as well as many single-family and multi-family investment properties. He is a Certified International Property Specialist and has worked with multinational clients including Asia, Europe, Canada, and Australia.

Tony was the former President of the Manhattan Association of Realtors. He has been a Director at HGAR since 2016 and currently serves as HGAR's President-elect.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts from Hofstra University (1993) and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (1997). He is also currently a member of the Metro NY Illinois Club Steering Committee, where he chairs its annual Scholarship Program.