

Christina Prozano, CIPS
HGAR Global Co-chair, Global RE Advisor,
Associate Broker, Founder and Principal, CP Global Team, Compass

With more than 25 years in investment, sales, and development in NYC real estate, Christina is a RealTrends Top 1000 agent and Founder and Principal of the Global Collective Team at Compass, the international Global Real Estate Collective, and the New York PropTech Association. She is proud to be Co-Chair of the Global Business Council for the Hudson Gateway Association of Realtors and on the planning committee of the Global Real Estate Summit.

Christina holds the CIPS designation, and a certificate in Commercial Real Estate Investment and Analysis from MIT. As one of the first Crypto Certified Agents, she was early to see the merits of proptech, blockchain, tokenization, AI, and all aspects of digital technologies in real estate, and looks forward to continued learning.
