

Steve Milgrom

Business Advocate
New Jersey Business Action Center (NJBAC)

As a Business Advocate for the New Jersey Business Action Center, Steve Milgrom helps businesses navigate NJ state government providing expertise on site selection, expedited permitting, and government grants and incentives.

Steve worked for 10 years on Capitol Hill, where he advised Congressman Frank Pallone on Energy, Labor, and Employment issues.

After leaving Washington, Steve began a career in Commercial Real Estate where he utilized his political insight and knowledge to obtain tax and energy incentives for corporations seeking to relocate to New Jersey.

Milgrom graduated from Ithaca College and the Washington Semester Program at American University.