

Paige Neuhauser

Associate Real Estate Broker, Brown Harris Stevens

Session: Broker Insights: Global Luxury & Buyer Trends

Paige Neuhauser is a Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker with Brown Harris Stevens in Manhattan, working alongside Brett Miles and his team.

Known for her keen eye and creative approach, Paige draws on her background in fine art, design, and interiors to guide clients in both new developments and boutique resales. Her work has contributed to top-producing sales across notable properties, including 50 Gramercy Park North, 10 Madison Square West, 42 Crosby, and 601 Washington.

Originally from New Orleans, Paige gained hands-on experience in restoration and preservation while overseeing the rebuilding of family properties post-Katrina. A graduate in Design and accomplished artist, her work has been exhibited nationally and collected privately and corporately. Before entering real estate, she ran her own fine art gallery in Santa Barbara and worked for VOGUE in Manhattan. Her clients value her style, humor, and ability to help them see the true potential in any space.
